Re: Patricia Hodge v. McNally International & McLenton Eaton
Supreme Court, Kings County, Index No.: 10576/2007

Dear Hon. Justice Lewis:

This office represents Defendants McNally International Corp. and McLenton Eaton relative to the above-referenced matter.

Our office previously moved the Court, by order to show cause, seeking an order permitting the Clerk of the Court to make an entry of satisfaction of the docket of July 23, 2010.

Your Honor heard Defendants' order to show cause and issued an Order, dated November 7, 2014, directing the Clerk of the Court to make an entry of satisfaction of the July 23, 2010 judgment filed against McNally International Corp.

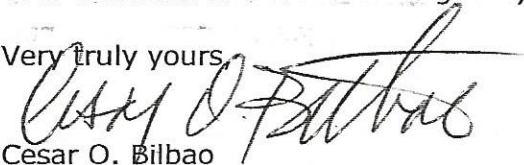

We are writing to request correction of the November 7, 2014 Order insofar as Defendants' order to show cause requested an entry of satisfaction of the July 23, 2010 judgment on behalf of both of the defendants.

Unfortunately, the Clerk of the Court will not make an entry of satisfaction on behalf of Defendant McLenton Eaton without your Honor's Order.

Due to the outstanding Satisfaction of Judgment, McLenton Eaton's personal credit has been negatively affected and he is unable to lease an apartment or obtain credit.

Your attention to this matter is greatly appreciated.

Very truly yours,

Cesar O. Bilbao
